9:00AM - 12:00PM

How your customers perceive your company is crucial to the success of your small business. This hands-on workshop will introduce you to the fundamentals of branding and its importance in building a successful company. By the end of this workshop, you will have the tools to develop your brand and take away a precise formula designed to help you get started.

This workshop is presented by Jermaine Richards of Designlingo.

To register, call (951) 781-2345 or visit www.iesmallbusiness.com

This workshop is offered at no cost, sponsored by the City of Eastvale

Funded in part through a cooperative agreement with the U.S. Small Business Administration.
