Background

This budget session will be focused entirely on Public Safety, including Police and Fire Services. At the February 27, 2019 Council Meeting, staff presented potential items to be included in the Fiscal Year 2019/2020 budget, which were all based on the recently adopted Strategic Plan.

At this budget hearing, staff will be presenting information related to levels of service for Police and Fire, as well as costs to provide such services.

Fire services are provided by Cal/Fire and staff will present historical information related to costs and where they are trending.

Police services are currently provided with the Riverside County Sheriff and staff will also be presenting historical information on past as well as future costs.
