EASTVALE STUDENT NOMINATED BY REP. CALVERT TO ATTEND U.S NAVAL ACADEMY

EASTVALE, CA – We are proud to share that in November of 2018, Eleanor Roosevelt High School student Talib Bryant received notice that he was nominated by Congressman Ken Calvert to attend the U.S Naval Academy.

Congressman Calvert's Academy Nominations Selection Committee evaluated several candidates from the 42nd Congressional District, who were seeking nominations to one or more U.S. Services Academies. Talib was one of thirty-five candidates selected to receive Congressman Calvert's nomination, and we are extremely proud of his accomplishment.

Talib is a hard-working student who believes success can be achieved through perseverance. In his senior year of high school, it has been his goal to attend one of the nation's military service academies. Fortunately, his outstanding high school transcript and resume has landed him that much closer to his dream.

Nominees are evaluated based on academic, athletic and physical qualifications. Appointments are expected to be sent in May 2019, and we wish Talib nothing but the best as he awaits this decision. We have no doubt that he will represent Eastvale and Eleanor Roosevelt High School well. Please join us in congratulating Talib on this outstanding honor.
