Honoring 250 Years of Freedom

EASTVALE, CALIF. – Thanks to the commitment of the Eastvale City Council, our city is set to make history with its first-ever Fourth of July celebration, Fourth Fest. This exciting new event will bring the community together to honor the 250th anniversary of the United States.

Taking place on Saturday, July 4, from noon to 10:00 p.m. at 7447 Scholar Way in Eastvale, Fourth Fest will deliver a full day of patriotic celebration, entertainment, and family fun.

From afternoon to evening, attendees can enjoy a dynamic lineup of free activities, including:

- A community parade
- A youth entrepreneur market
- Live musical performances
- Food and drinks
- A fireworks spectacular beginning at 9:00 p.m.

“This is a once-in-a-generation opportunity to celebrate America’s 250th birthday right here in Eastvale,” said Mayor Jocelyn Yow. “We are proud to create a celebration that brings our community together in such a meaningful and memorable way as we honor this historic milestone.”

Residents and visitors are encouraged to join this landmark celebration and be part of a defining moment for the Eastvale community. As a reminder, parking, admission, and the fireworks show are free.
